

What can 38,000+ security professionals do for you?

Connect you to the global security community.

Connections are more important than ever.

Fluctuating world economies and accelerating globalization are having an impact on all industries, including security management. Your job, your career, your day-to-day challenges undoubtedly are affected as the profession adapts to the realities of the current environment.

Tomorrow may present new threats, different priorities, and greater expectations for security managers.

How can you keep up with it all and be successful in the security management profession?

By joining ASIS International (ASIS)—the global community of more than 38,000 security practitioners.

As an ASIS member, you will know how your counterparts in other organizations ... and around the world ... are managing their security programs, applying industry best practices, and responding to the most urgent matters of the day. You will understand the challenges ahead and what they mean for you and your organization.

In short, you will always be at the forefront of your profession.

>> Who are ASIS Members?

ASIS members represent virtually every industry in the public and private sectors, and organizations of all sizes. From entry-level managers to CSOs to CEOs, from security veterans to consultants and those transitioning from law enforcement or the military—all find a professional home at ASIS International.

The need for competent security managers and for recognition of their intrinsic value to organizations and society has never been greater than it is right now. ASIS is committed to helping its members excel...and to advancing security worldwide.

>> Develop Your Leadership Abilities Through ASIS

Distinguish yourself by developing and refining your leadership skills through ASIS volunteer opportunities such as:

- Participating in your local chapter
- Contributing to an ASIS Council
- Speaking at an education program
- Helping to shape industry standards, guidelines, and best practices.

World-renowned credentials to advance your career.

ASIS has developed the credentialing programs you need to:

- Showcase your professional competence and leadership ability
- Achieve job security and credibility
- Ensure lifelong learning is part of your plan
- Add increased value to your organization
- Develop a network of peers at the highest levels of expertise

ASIS certifications are recognized and accepted worldwide as the standard of professional competency. In fact, many employers seek only candidates who are ASIS board certified. Distinguished among their peers as credible, competent practitioners, certificants are in high demand by organizations within the public and private sectors around the world.

For more information on ASIS Board Certification including eligibility requirements, core knowledge domains, testing policies, and reference materials, visit www.asisonline.org/certification.

Certified Protection Professional (CPP)

Professional Certified Investigator (PCI)

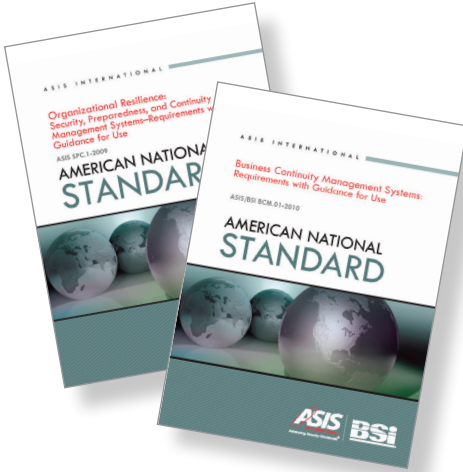

Physical Security Professional (PSP)

“Having the credential is a game changer and gives you instant credibility, which is absolutely needed in the security profession. I can’t overemphasize the opportunities my CPP and PSP have provided my career.”

Brian Taylor, CPP, PSP, Director of Operations, Allpoints Security

High-impact advocacy to ensure your voice is heard.

As the leading advocate for the security management profession, ASIS ensures that your voice is heard throughout the world. From security-related legislation to public policies to regulations, ASIS is at the forefront, aggressively advocating for its members and ensuring that industry viewpoints and perspectives are heard by:

- Government officials
- Business and professional organizations
- The news media
- The general public

ASIS has formed strategic partnerships with top organizations as needed to gain consensus, build on common ground, and present a stronger voice for the profession.

>> At the Forefront of Security Standards Development

ASIS is a vital force in standards development worldwide through its relationships with standards bodies such as the International Organization for Standardization (ISO), the American National Standards Institute (ANSI), and others. ASIS members have a unique opportunity to participate in this important community.

“There is no other organization that better represents and connects security professionals throughout the world than ASIS.”

Steve D. Chupa, CPP, Director, Worldwide Security, Johnson & Johnson
